

COMPLAINTS HANDLING POLICY

1. Introduction

1.1. CDE Global Markets Ltd (operating under the tradename “Oqtima” and being referred to as “we” or “us” or the “Company”) is authorised and regulated by the Seychelles Financial Services Authority (the “FSA”) with license number SD109, having its registered address at F20, 1st Floor, Eden Plaza, Eden Island, Seychelles.

1.2 This Policy should be read in conjunction with the Client Agreement.

2. Scope and Purpose

2.1 Oqtima aims to treat its clients fairly and provide them with high standards of customer service. However, and in the unlikely event that you are dissatisfied with any aspect of our services, you may consider informing us of it via the mediums of communication described in this Complaints Handling Policy.

2.2 Oqtima is required to establish, implement and maintain effective and transparent procedures for the reasonable and prompt handling of complaints or grievances received from complainants regarding our services, and keep records of each complaint as well as any actions taken by Oqtima to remedy the situation. This policy sets out the method for the submission of complaints with Oqtima from its clients and the processes followed by Oqtima’s personnel when dealing with such complaints.

3. Definitions

“Complaint” is defined as a statement, or an expression of dissatisfaction addressed to Oqtima by a client (natural or legal person) regarding the provision of investment and/or ancillary services provided by Oqtima to the client.

“Complainant” is defined as any person, natural or legal, who has read, agreed with and accept all the terms and conditions contained in the Client Agreement, has opened a trading account with Oqtima and used Oqtima’s services and has lodged a complaint.

A Complainant may appoint a representative to act on his/her behalf in relation to submitting and resolving a complaint. Oqtima will obtain a third party authority form from the Complainant to liaise with the appointed representative. Where a Complainant appoints a representative, Oqtima will not contact the complainant directly, unless the Complainant specifically requests that Oqtima directly communicates with him/her.

4. Submitting the Complaint

4.1 The Complainant can submit the complaint, in writing or verbally to Oqtima via the following methods:

- a. Email: complaints@oqtima.com

b. Postal Address: F20, 1st Floor, Eden Plaza, Eden Island, Seychelles

5. Managing Complaints

5.1 Oqtima manages all complaints and Complainants equally, without any discrimination, in harmony with the procedure regulated by this Policy.

5.2 The complaints will be handled by:

a) Client Support

In the first instance, upon successful submission of the Complaint Form and within (5) working days from the day of receipt, Client Support will send an electronic acknowledgment of receipt to the Complainant's registered email address to verify that Oqtima has received the complaint.

Client Support will investigate the grounds of the complaint and if, based on the information provided, the grievance does not fall within the definition of 'complaint' or is not considered to be a complaint it will be categorised as an enquiry and will be forwarded to the relevant department to be handled appropriately.

If the grievance falls within the definition of complaint or is considered to be a complaint, Client Support will collect all the relevant information and evidence from the Complainant and the system and/or relevant departments in order to analyse and evaluate the data.

Client Support upon examining the complaint and reaching a decision to this respect shall inform the Complainant about the Company's decision in writing and in plain language which is clearly understood, together with the reasoning of Oqtima's decision and any remedial measures it intends to take. The Company will attempt to resolve the complaint within two (2) months.

b) Compliance Department

If our Client Support is unable to resolve the complaint it shall forward the complaint to the Compliance Department. The Complainant, if he/she does not accept the solution offered by Client Support, is also entitled to approach the Compliance Department directly at compliance@oqtima.com. The Compliance Department will appoint a Compliance Officer for further investigation. The Compliance Department will perform an impartial assessment of the complaint and will provide you with a written response.

6. Response to Complaints

6.1 Oqtima follows the outlined procedures to ensure that the complaint is resolved within a period of two (2) months. A final written response, which contains Oqtima's decision and the reasoning, will be provided to the Complainant via email.

6.2 If the complaint is more complex and takes longer than two (2) months from Oqtima's acknowledgement of it to resolve, Oqtima will keep the Complainant informed about reasons of delay and indicate when the final response is expected to be finalized.

6.3 We reserve the right to dismiss an enquiry, query or complaint raised by a Client which does not comply with this Policy or where one of the following occurs:

- I. The Client did not comply with the provisions of the Client Agreement
- II. The incident has not been explained in an accurate manner
- III. The Client uses obscene and/or offensive language
- IV. The Client insults or threatens the Company or any of its employees.

7. General provisions

7.1 Oqtima is entitled to consider a query or complaint as closed in any of the following instances:

- a) upon the Company's final decision no further action is required by the Company or the Client;
- b) upon the Company's final decision and where the matter has been mutually resolved;
- c) where the Client has failed to respond in a timely manner in an adequate way to the Company's questions and/or requests not enabling the Company to conclude their assessment or investigation.

8. Settlement of Disputes

8.1 In the case the Complainant is not satisfied with Oqtima's final decision, the Complainant can refer the complaint with a copy of Oqtima's final response to the Financial Services Authority (FSA) in Seychelles for further examination.

8.2

The contact details for the FSA in Seychelles are set out below:

9. Record Keeping of the Complaints

9.1 Oqtima shall register all complaints. The register shall record at least the following information:

- the Complainant's name, registered email and account number(s);
 - the date of receiving the complaint;
 - the product or service complained about;
 - brief details of the complaint;
- any action taken and decisions made (in case of rejection, the reasoning for the rejection); and
 - the date the complaint is resolved.

9.2 Oqtima shall preserve the record of all complaints for a minimum period of seven (7) years after the receipt of the complaint. Compliance Department will analyse, on an ongoing basis, complaints handling data, in order to identify and address the causes of the individual complaints and/or any recurring or systematic problems and/or any potential legal and operational risks. Subsequently the relevant person or department should be informed and if necessary, take corrective action.
